

Angel R. Rodriguez

Angel R. Rodriguez currently serves as the Business Banking Sales Leader for Northeast Ohio at KeyBank, where he leads a team of Relationship Managers providing trusted financial advisory and strategic business guidance to growing companies across Cleveland, Akron, Canton, Youngstown, Erie, Pennsylvania, and surrounding communities.

Prior to joining KeyBank, Angel held a variety of senior leadership roles across the banking and broader financial services industry, where he led regional and national teams of bankers and sales professionals focused on delivering capital solutions to fast-growing small business and middle-market companies. Most recently, he served as President and Chief Executive Officer of North Coast Insurance Group, an Allstate exclusive insurance agency.

In addition to his experience in banking and insurance, Angel is an entrepreneur, having founded and served as President and CEO of Genesis Surgical Solutions, Inc., a medical implant and instrumentation sales, service, and education company specializing in spinal fusion and alternative spine health procedures. Across his career, he has developed deep expertise in sales leadership, workforce and operations management, credit risk management, strategic planning, leadership development, and business growth.

At KeyBank, Angel serves as Chair of the Project S.U.N. Program, a partnership between KeyCorp and the Cleveland Metropolitan School District that provides mentorship, experiential learning, and micro-internships to high school students. He previously served as the Consumer Bank Champion for Inclusion & Belonging, helping to build and engage a talented, diverse, and inclusive workforce. He is also an active member of the Hispanic-Latinx Key Business Impact and Networking Group, supporting professional development, business growth, and community engagement.

Outside of KeyBank, Angel serves as Board Chair of the Spanish American Committee and as a board member of JumpStart Inc., the John Carroll University Alumni Association, the Catholic Community Foundation, The Hispanic Roundtable, and Youth Opportunities Unlimited (Y.O.U.).
